

FAITH AND THE SEARCH FOR CERTITUDE: RELIGIOUS,
PHENOMENOLOGICAL AND EXISTENTIAL PERSPECTIVES
16TH MARCH 2012

- 9am Registration
- 9.20 Professor David Jasper (University of Glasgow) – Opening Address
- 9.40 Professor Jean-Luc Marion (Université Paris-Sorbonne/ University of Chicago) – ‘The Unconditioned – God’
- 10.20 Questions from the floor
- 10.40 Refreshments
- 11am Dr Ramona Fotiade (University of Glasgow) ‘Cur Deus homo - The Irrational Residuum of Being (Reflexions on Jean-Luc Marion & Léon Chestov)’
- 11.30 Javier Bassas (University of Barcelona) – ‘The Saturated Language – A Phenomeno-Linguistical Approach to Jean-Luc Marion’s Texts’
- 12pm Questions from the floor
- 12 Lunch
- 2pm Jean Leclercq et Joaquim Hernandez (Université catholique de Louvain): ‘Michel Henry’s Paradoxes : Christ Without Christianity’
- 2.30 Gregory Jean (Université catholique de Louvain): ‘Christianism and Phenomenology in a Post-Modern Context/ Michel Henry’s Philosophy of Christianism’
- 3.00 Questions from the floor
- 3.20 Refreshments
- 3.45 Professor Alexander Broadie (University of Glasgow) ‘Creation, conservation and modes of being’
- 4.15 Questions from the floor
- 4.30 Round table discussion and closing remarks